

WE NEVER STOP GROWING™

Over 100 years and still growing strong

When Stephen Boskovich began farming in Southern California's San Fernando Valley in 1915, little did he know how far Boskovich Farms would grow. By the 1940s, Stephen's sons had expanded the farming operation to form Boskovich Brothers Produce Growers.

Today, four generations later, Boskovich Farms is still family-owned-and-operated. We grow on more than 18,000 acres in California and Mexico, producing over 30 different vegetable crops. Our product line-up includes a variety of conventional and organic fresh produce available year-round. In addition, our processing division, Fresh Prep, provides a diverse line of retail and foodservice items.

- 1915 Stephen Boskovich begins farming
- 1940 The Boskovich brothers expand Boskovich Farms
- 1960 The business extends growing into Newhall
- 1970 Boskovich grandsons continue to expand Boskovich Farms
- 1980 The product line increases to over 30 crops
- 1990 Boskovich introduces Fresh Cut to a huge success
- 2004 Boskovich expands to a new headquarters and fresh-cut facility
- 2011 Organics are added to the already-extensive line of products
- 2018 Fresh Prep, LLC launches as a standalone Boskovich Farms entity
- 2020 First to market compostable packaging for retail packaged salads category

The Sustainable Farmer

Meeting today's needs without compromising tomorrow's

Boskovich Farms ensures that the resources from our earth and environment are never taken for granted, while we proudly utilize the soil, water, and sun to grow our premium quality vegetables. We are also committed to maintaining and protecting the sustainability of those resources in our daily operations through the following practices:

Transportation Efficiency

Water Recycling and Conservation

Limited Chemical / Pesticide Use

Environmentally Friendly Packaging / Containers / Pallets

Waste Reduction & Management

Community Involvement

Good Employee Relations

Energy Efficiency

Quality + Service + Integrity = The Finest Produce!

Over the years, Boskovich Farms has built a reputation based on quality, integrity and our ability to deliver the finest produce in North America. From planting through shipping, we take pride in assuring maximum quality in every one of our products we produce. Our newest venture, Fresh Prep, takes packaged, top-quality produce into the future, with over 100 products developed to meet consumer demand, and compostable packaging to help serve the land that we feel is our responsibility to protect.

Our customers have come to expect a certain level of quality from products labeled Boskovich, and now Fresh Prep, too.

We are dedicated to making sure we continuously deliver.
